Dear Mr. Gill,

This letter is in response to your request of October 2, 2015, for review of the above referenced script for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Policy Guide (0792PG).

Your submission was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and we concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of your script, as presented.

You may include your past FBI employment as part of your biographical data, providing that the FBI is given no more emphasis than other similar biographical information. In addition, please incorporate a disclaimer advising readers that the opinions expressed in the script are yours and not those of the FBI.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [Redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: Request to Speak at Oracle Developer Conference
Dear Mr. Barth,

This letter is in response to your request of October 5, 2015, for a request to speak at an Oracle developer conference pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Policy Guide (0792PG).

Your request to participate is approved, subject to the following: Any discussion of matters concerning your official duties with the FBI may not involve pending cases, grand jury, classified, and other information, the disclosure of which could violate criminal laws or Department of Justice or FBI policy. In addition, please be advised that this approval should not be construed to permit the disclosure of:

Information protected from agency disclosure by the Privacy Act;

Information that is classified or the disclosure of which could otherwise harm national security;

Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, or counterintelligence techniques, sources or methods; or that reveals the sensitive, confidential or proprietary techniques, sources, or methods of other agencies or entities;

Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;

Information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source or informant;

Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive merits of any ongoing or open investigation, inquest, probe, prosecution, appeal, or case;

Information that consists of the proprietary information of another, including trading secrets;

H. Information pertaining to wiretaps or intercepts protected or regulated by Title III (Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 2510-2520);

I. Information pertaining to currency transaction reports regulated or protected by Title 31, U.S.C., Section 5319;

J. Tax return information regulated or protected by Title 26, U.S.C., Section 6103;

K. Information pertaining to contractor bids or proposals or source-selection information before the award of the procurement contract to which the information relates;

L. Information protected from disclosure by any other federal statute or regulation; or,

M. Information exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5, U.S.C., Section 552) unless the material is clearly already in the public domain. (MAOP, Part I, 1-24 (5) (a) (1))

Also, please provide a clear statement in your speech that the views expressed are yours and not those of the FBI.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: Manuscript: "Dirty War: Rhodesia's Covert Chemical and Biological Warfare Effort"

Dear Mr. Cross,

This letter is in response to your request of October 6, 2015, for review of the above referenced manuscript for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Policy Guide (0792PG).

We have reviewed the work and concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of the content of your work, as presented in your submission. Our findings are based on Bureau publication and security policy and extend only to the release of information contained in your submission. This, however, does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in publication for compensation, sale, or other commercial use of your work. In that regard, you must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch.

The Standards limit the circumstances under which an employee may accept compensation for the sale or publication of written works. The Standards also limit the extent to which you may use your official title, position, FBI status, or other indicia of your FBI employment in connection with publishing, advertising or marketing your work, to include mention in any biographical statement related to the work, such as in a "dust jacket." If you intend to mention in your biographical statement that you work for the FBI, you should consult the Office of Integrity and Compliance (OIC).

Again, compliance with the prepublication policy does not relieve you of the obligation to comply with the Standards and other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work, consider applicable regulations as set forth in the FBI Ethics and Integrity Program Policy Guide (0454PG), with particular attention to Sections 4.8. and 4.9. You may also be required to submit an FD-331 Outside Employment Form depending on how you intend to sell or market your work. Please contact the OIC if you have any questions regarding these regulations.

As your work may also impact the mission of the Office of Public Affairs, a copy of this letter has been forwarded to that office for their information.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of the content of your work, as presented in your submission. Our findings are based on Bureau publication and security policy and extend only to the release of information contained in your submission. This, however, does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in publication for compensation, sale, or other commercial use of your work. In that regard, you must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch.

The Standards limit the circumstances under which an employee may accept compensation for the sale or publication of written works. The Standards also limit the extent to which you may use your official title, position, FBI status, or other indicia of your FBI employment in connection with publishing, advertising or marketing your work, to include mention in any biographical statement related to the work, such as in a "dust jacket." If you intend to mention in your biographical statement that you work for the FBI, you should consult the Office of Integrity and Compliance (OIC).

Again, compliance with the prepublication policy does not relieve you of the obligation to comply with the Standards and other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work, consider applicable regulations as set forth in the FBI Ethics and Integrity Program Policy Guide (0454PG), with particular attention to Sections 4.8. and 4.9. You may also be required to submit an FD-331 Outside Employment Form depending on how you intend to sell or market your work. Please contact the OIC if you have any questions regarding these regulations.

As your work may also impact the mission of the Office of Public Affairs, a copy of this letter has been forwarded to that office for their information.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at

Re: Newspaper Articles Containing FBI Information
Dear Ms. Richard,

This letter is in response to newspaper articles that were published in the Las Vegas Review Journal on October 22 and October 29, 2015, respectively.

As a result of the many sensitive issues which FBI employees work with on a daily basis during their employment, the FBI requires employees sign a nondisclosure agreement for prepublication review of any published works, containing FBI information by current or former FBI employees. This prepublication review affords the FBI the opportunity to assess whether the proposed disclosure includes prohibited disclosures, to advise the submitting employee of any such concerns, and to work with the employee to resolve such concerns.

For any future works or interviews you wish to publish either orally, written, or electronically, which disclose FBI information, you are required to submit the work or an outline of an interview or presentation for review before publication or presentation. Our review time is normally less than 30 days.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [REDACTED] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov.

Dear Ms. Bruno,

This letter is in response to your request of October 28, 2015, for a request to moderate a law school panel pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Policy Guide (0792PG).

Your request to participate is approved, subject to the following: Any discussion of matters concerning your official duties with the FBI may not involve pending cases, grand jury, classified, and other information, the disclosure of which could violate criminal laws or Department of Justice or FBI policy. In addition, please be advised that this approval should not be construed to permit the disclosure of:

Information protected from agency disclosure by the Privacy Act;

Information that is classified or the disclosure of which could otherwise harm national security;

Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, or counterintelligence techniques, sources or methods; or that reveals the sensitive, confidential or proprietary techniques, sources, or methods of other agencies or entities;

Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;

Information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source or informant;

Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive merits of any ongoing or open investigation, inquest, probe, prosecution, appeal, or case;

Information that consists of the proprietary information of another, including trading secrets;

H. Information pertaining to wiretaps or intercepts protected or regulated by

Title III (Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 2510-2520);

I. Information pertaining to currency transaction reports regulated or protected by Title 31, U.S.C., Section 5319;

J. Tax return information regulated or protected by Title 26, U.S.C., Section 6103;

K. Information pertaining to contractor bids or proposals or source-selection information before the award of the procurement contract to which the information relates;

L. Information protected from disclosure by any other federal statute or regulation; or,

M. Information exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5, U.S. C., Section 552) unless the material is clearly already in the public domain. (MAOP, Part I, 1-24 (5) (a) (1))

Also, please provide a clear statement in your speech that the views expressed are yours and not those of the FBI.

Dear Mr. Israel,

This letter is in response to your request of October 19, 2015, for review of the above referenced article for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Policy Guide (0792PG).

Your submission was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and we concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of your article, as presented.

In addition, a review was conducted by the Department of Homeland Security, (DHS) and the National Security Administration, (NSA). No objections were identified concerning the equities of either agency, as presented in your article.

You may include your past FBI employment as part of your biographical data, providing that the FBI is given no more emphasis than other similar biographical information. In addition, please incorporate a disclaimer advising readers that the opinions expressed in the article are yours and not those of the FBI.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fhiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: Manuscript: "Criminal Enterprise Investigations"

Dear Mr. Trier,

This letter is in response to your request of October 14, 2015, for review of the above referenced manuscript for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Policy Guide (0792PG).

This manuscript was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and the reviewer noted the following matter which requires possible amendment/correction.

On page 162, 3rd paragraph, through the 3rd paragraph on page 163, please delete or modify the details which describe the informant and the specifics of his job. This information could lead to the identity of this individual.

You may include your past FBI employment as part of your biographical data, providing that the FBI is given no more emphasis than other similar biographical information. In addition, please incorporate a disclaimer advising readers that the opinions expressed in the manuscript are yours and not those of the FBI.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: Introduction for Upcoming Book
Dear Mr. Simons,

This letter is in response to your request of November 9, 2015, for review of the above referenced introduction for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Policy Guide (0792PG).

We have reviewed the work and concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of the content of your work, as presented in your submission. Our findings are based on Bureau publication and security policy and extend only to the release of information contained in your submission. This, however, does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in publication for compensation, sale, or other commercial use of your work. In that regard, you must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch.

The Standards limit the circumstances under which an employee may accept compensation for the sale or publication of written works. The Standards also limit the extent to which you may use your official title, position, FBI status, or other indicia of your FBI employment in connection with publishing, advertising or marketing your work, to include mention in any biographical statement related to the work, such as in a "dust jacket." If you intend to mention in your biographical statement that you work for the FBI, you should consult the Office of Integrity and Compliance (OIC).

Again, compliance with the prepublication policy does not relieve you of the obligation to comply with the Standards and other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work, consider applicable regulations as set forth in the FBI Ethics and Integrity Program Policy Guide (0454PG), with particular attention to Sections 4.8. and 4.9. You may also be required to submit an FD-331 Outside Employment Form depending on how you intend to sell or market your work. Please contact the OIC if you have any questions regarding these regulations.

As your work may also impact the mission of the Office of Public Affairs, a copy of this letter has been forwarded to that office for their information.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [REDACTED] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: Paper: "Putting FITARA to the Test"

Dear Mr. Adams,

This letter is in response to your request of November 16, 2015, for review of the above referenced paper for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Policy Guide (0792PG).

We have reviewed the work and concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of the content of your work, as presented in your submission. Our findings are based on Bureau publication and security policy and extend only to the release of information contained in your submission. This, however, does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in publication for compensation, sale, or other commercial use of your work. In that regard, you must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch.

The Standards limit the circumstances under which an employee may accept compensation for the sale or publication of written works. The Standards also limit the extent to which you may use your official title, position, FBI status, or other indicia of your FBI employment in connection with publishing, advertising or marketing your work, to include mention in any biographical statement related to the work, such as in a "dust jacket." If you intend to mention in your biographical statement that you work for the FBI, you should consult the Office of Integrity and Compliance (OIC).

Again, compliance with the prepublication policy does not relieve you of the obligation to comply with the Standards and other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work, consider applicable regulations as set forth in the FBI Ethics and Integrity Program Policy Guide (0454PG), with particular attention to Sections 4.8. and 4.9. You may also be required to submit an FD-331 Outside Employment Form depending on how you intend to sell or market your work. Please contact the OIC if you have any questions regarding these regulations.

As your work may also impact the mission of the Office of Public Affairs, a copy of this letter has been forwarded to that office for their information.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: Script: "The Reel Deal"

Dear Mr. Cortese,

This letter is in response to your request of December 31, 2015, for review of the above referenced script for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Policy Guide (0792PG).

We have reviewed the work and concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of the content of your work, as presented in your submission. Our findings are based on Bureau publication and security policy and extend only to the release of information contained in your submission. This, however, does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in publication for compensation, sale, or other commercial use of your work. In that regard, you must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch.

The Standards limit the circumstances under which an employee may accept compensation for the sale or publication of written works. The Standards also limit the extent to which you may use your official title, position, FBI status, or other indicia of your FBI employment in connection with publishing, advertising or marketing your work, to include mention in any biographical statement related to the work, such as in a "dust jacket." and other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work, consider applicable regulations as set forth in the FBI Ethics and Integrity Program Policy Guide (0454PG), with particular attention to Sections 4.8. and 4.9. You may also be required to submit an FD-331 Outside Employment Form depending on how you intend to sell or market your work. Please contact the OIC if you have any questions regarding these regulations.

As your work may also impact the mission of the Office of Public Affairs, a copy of this letter has been forwarded to that office for their information.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

b6 -1

Dear Mr. Delgado,

This letter is in response to your request of December 18, 2015, for review of the above referenced book chapter for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Policy Guide (0792PG).

Your submission was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and we concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of your book chapter, as presented.

You may include your past FBI employment as part of your biographical data, providing that the FBI is given no more emphasis than other similar biographical information. In addition, please incorporate a disclaimer advising readers that the opinions expressed in the book chapter are yours and not those of the FBI.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: Request to Speak at Dickinson College
Dear Ms. Byron,

This letter is in response to your request of January 6, 2016, for a request to speak at Dickinson College, pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Policy Guide (0792PG).

Your request to participate is approved, subject to the following: Any discussion of matters concerning your official duties with the FBI may not involve pending cases, grand jury, classified, and other information, the disclosure of which could violate criminal laws or Department of Justice or FBI policy. In addition, please be advised that this approval should not be construed to permit the disclosure of:

Information protected from agency disclosure by the Privacy Act;

Information that is classified or the disclosure of which could otherwise harm national security;

Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, or counterintelligence techniques, sources or methods; or that reveals the sensitive, confidential or proprietary techniques, sources, or methods of other agencies or entities;

Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;

Information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source or informant;

Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive merits of any ongoing or open investigation, inquest, probe, prosecution, appeal, or case;

Information that consists of the proprietary information of another, including trading secrets;

H. Information pertaining to wiretaps or intercepts protected or regulated by Title III (Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 2510-2520);

I. Information pertaining to currency transaction reports regulated or protected by Title 31, U.S.C., Section 5319;

J. Tax return information regulated or protected by Title 26, U.S.C., Section 6103;

K. Information pertaining to contractor bids or proposals or source-selection information before the award of the procurement contract to which the information relates;

L. Information protected from disclosure by any other federal statute or regulation; or,

M. Information exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5, U.S. C., Section 552) unless the material is clearly already in the public domain. (MAOP, Part I, 1-24 (5)(a)(1))

Also, please provide a clear statement in your speech that the views expressed are yours and not those of the FBI.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: Script: "U.N.Lovable"

Dear Ms. O'Malley,

This letter is in response to your request of January 11, 2016, for review of the above referenced script for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Policy Guide (0792PG).

We have reviewed the work and concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of the content of your work, as presented in your submission. Our findings are based on Bureau publication and security policy and extend only to the release of information contained in your submission. This, however, does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in publication for compensation, sale, or other commercial use of your work. In that regard, you must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch.

The Standards limit the circumstances under which an employee may accept compensation for the sale or publication of written works. The Standards also limit the extent to which you may use your official title, position, FBI status, or other indicia of your FBI employment in connection with publishing, advertising or marketing your work, to include mention in any biographical statement related to the work, such as in a "dust jacket." If you intend to mention in your biographical statement that you work for the FBI, you should consult the Office of Integrity and Compliance (OIC).

Re: Request to Participate in a Discovery Channel TV Show
Dear Mr. Moseley,

This letter is in response to your request of January 28, 2016, for a request to participate in a Discovery Channel TV show, pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRE) and Prepublication Review Policy Guide (0792PG).

Your request to participate is approved, subject to the following: Any discussion of matters concerning your official duties with the FBI may not involve pending cases, grand jury, classified, and other information, the disclosure of which could violate criminal laws or Department of Justice or FBI policy. In addition, please be advised that this approval should not be construed to permit the disclosure of:

Information protected from agency disclosure by the Privacy Act;

Information that is classified or the disclosure of which could otherwise harm national security;

Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, or counterintelligence techniques, sources or methods; or that reveals the sensitive, confidential or proprietary techniques, sources, or methods of other agencies or entities;

Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;

Information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source or informant;

Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive merits of any ongoing or open investigation, inquest, probe, prosecution, appeal, or case;

Information that consists of the proprietary information of another, including trading secrets;
H. Information pertaining to wiretaps or intercepts protected or regulated by Title III (Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 2510-2520);

I. Information pertaining to currency transaction reports regulated or protected by Title 31, U.S.C., Section 5319;

J. Tax return information regulated or protected by Title 26, U.S.C., Section 6103;

K. Information pertaining to contractor bids or proposals or source-selection information before the award of the procurement contract to which the information relates;

L. Information protected from disclosure by any other federal statute or regulation; or,

M. Information exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5, U.S. C., Section 552) unless the material is clearly already in the public domain. (MAOP, Part I, 1-24 (5) (a) (1))

Also, please provide a clear statement in your interview that the views expressed are yours and not those of the FBI.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: EMS World CCC Article
Dear Mr. Jones,

This letter is in response to your request of January 27, 2016, for review of the above referenced article for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Policy Guide (0792PG).

We have reviewed the work and concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of the content of your work, as presented in your submission. Our findings are based on Bureau publication and security policy and extend only to the release of information contained in your submission. This, however, does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in publication for compensation, sale, or other commercial use of your work. In that regard, you must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch.

The Standards limit the circumstances under which an employee may accept compensation for the sale or publication of written works. The Standards also limit the extent to which you may use your official title, position, FBI status, or other indicia of your FBI employment in connection with publishing, advertising or marketing your work, to include mention in any biographical statement related to the work, such as in a "dust jacket." If you intend to mention in your biographical statement that you work for the FBI, you should consult the Office of Integrity and Compliance (OIC).

of the obligation to comply with the Standards and other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work, consider applicable regulations as set forth in the FBI Ethics and Integrity Program Policy Guide (0454PG), with particular attention to Sections 4.8. and 4.9. You may also be required to submit an FD-331 Outside Employment Form depending on how you intend to sell or market your work. Please contact the OIC if you have any questions regarding these regulations.

As your work may also impact the mission of the Office of Public Affairs, a copy of this letter has been forwarded to that office for their information.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: Manuscript: "Behead Me"

Dear Mr. Atkinson,

This letter is in response to your request of January 15, 2016, for review of the above referenced manuscript for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Policy Guide (0792PG).

Your submission was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and we concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of your manuscript, as presented.

You may include your past FBI employment as part of your biographical data, providing that the FBI is given no more emphasis than other similar biographical information. In addition, please incorporate a disclaimer advising readers that the opinions expressed in the manuscript are yours and not those of the FBI.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [REDACTED] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Sincerely,

Re: Manuscript: "It Was a Long Night and Short Day"

Dear Mr. Robinson,

This letter is in response to your request of February 3, 2016, for review of the above referenced manuscript for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Policy Guide (0792PG).

We have reviewed the work and concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of the content of your work, as presented in your submission. Our findings are based on Bureau publication and security policy and extend only to the release of information contained in your submission. This, however, does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in publication for compensation, sale, or other commercial use of your work. In that regard, you must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch.

The Standards limit the circumstances under which an employee may accept compensation for the sale or publication of written works. The Standards also limit the extent to which you may use your official title, position, FBI status, or other indicia of your FBI employment in connection with publishing, advertising or marketing your work, to include mention in any biographical statement related to the work, such as in a "dust jacket." If you intend to mention in your biographical statement that you work for the FBI, you should consult the Office of Integrity and Compliance (OIC).

Again, compliance with the prepublication policy does not relieve you of the obligation to comply with the Standards and other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work, consider applicable regulations as set forth in the FBI Ethics and Integrity Program Policy Guide (0454PG), with particular attention to Sections 4.8. and 4.9. You may also be required to submit an FD-331 Outside Employment Form depending on how you intend to sell or market your work. Please contact the OIC if you have any questions regarding these regulations.

As your work may also impact the mission of the Office of Public Affairs, a copy of this letter has been forwarded to that office for their information.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [REDACTED] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Dear Mr. Tran,

This letter is in response to your request of February 9, 2016, for a request to guest lecture a college class, pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Policy Guide (0792PG).

Your request to participate is approved, subject to the following: Any discussion of matters concerning your official duties with the FBI may not involve pending cases, grand jury, classified, and other information, the disclosure of which could violate criminal laws or Department of Justice or FBI policy. In addition, please be advised that this approval should not be construed to permit the disclosure of:

Information protected from agency disclosure by the Privacy Act;

Information that is classified or the disclosure of which could otherwise harm national security;

Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, or counterintelligence techniques, sources or methods; or that reveals the sensitive, confidential or proprietary techniques, sources, or methods of other agencies or entities;

Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;

Information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source or informant;

b6 -2

Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive merits of any ongoing or open investigation, inquest, probe, prosecution, appeal, or case;

Information that consists of the proprietary information of another, including trading secrets;

H. Information pertaining to wiretaps or intercepts protected or regulated by Title III (Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 2510-2520);

I. Information pertaining to currency transaction reports regulated or protected by Title 31, U.S.C., Section 5319;

J. Tax return information regulated or protected by Title 26, U.S.C., Section 6103;

K. Information pertaining to contractor bids or proposals or source-selection information before the award of the procurement contract to which the information relates;

L. Information protected from disclosure by any other federal statute or regulation; or,

M. Information exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5, U.S. C., Section 552) unless the material is clearly already in the public domain. (MAOP, Part I, 1-24 (5) (a) (1))

Also, please provide a clear statement in your lecture that the views expressed are yours and not those of the FBI.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

This letter is in response to your request of February 18, 2016, for review of the above referenced excerpt for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Policy Guide (0792PG).

Your submission was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and we concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of your excerpt, as presented.

You may include your FBI employment as part of your biographical data, providing that the FBI is given no more emphasis than other similar biographical information. In addition, please incorporate a disclaimer advising readers that the opinions expressed in the book are yours and not those of the FBI.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [REDACTED] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: Case Summary for University
Dear Mr. Galeski,

This letter is in response to your request of February 26, 2016, for review of the above referenced case summary for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Policy Guide (0792PG).

We have reviewed the work and concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of the content of your work, as presented in your submission. Our findings are based on Bureau publication and security policy and extend only to the release of information contained in your submission. This, however, does not constitute approval by the FBI for you to engage in publication for compensation, sale, or other commercial use of your work. In that regard, you must also comply with the Standards of Ethical Conduct for the Executive Branch.

The Standards limit the circumstances under which an employee may accept compensation for the sale or publication of written works. The Standards also limit the extent to which you may use your official title, position, FBI status, or other indicia of your FBI employment in connection with publishing, advertising or marketing your work, to include mention in any biographical statement related to the work, such as in a "dust jacket." If you intend to mention in your biographical statement that you work for the FBI, you should consult the Office of Integrity and Compliance (OIC).

Again, compliance with the prepublication policy does not relieve you of the obligation to comply with the Standards and other applicable FBI and Office of Government Ethics regulations or policies. Prior to taking any further action with respect to this work, consider applicable regulations as set forth in the FBI Ethics and Integrity Program Policy Guide (0454PG), with particular attention to Sections 4.8. and 4.9. You may also be required to submit an FD-331 Outside Employment Form depending on how you intend to sell or market your work. Please contact the OIC if you have any questions regarding these regulations.

As your work may also impact the mission of the Office of Public Affairs, a copy of this letter has been forwarded to that office for their information.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Re: Angel Quest: Treatment and Sizzle Reel
Dear Ms. Leonardi,

This letter is in response to your request of March 1, 2016, for review of the above referenced Treatment and sizzle reel for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Policy Guide (0792PG).

Your submission was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and we concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of your Treatment and sizzle reel, as presented.

You may include your past FBI employment as part of your biographical data, providing that the FBI is given no more emphasis than other similar biographical information. In addition, please incorporate a disclaimer advising readers that the opinions expressed in the Treatment are yours and not those of the FBI.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [Redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at fbiprepub@ic.fbi.gov. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.
